Hello Nazma,

Thank you for your response. However, an offer letter cannot be treated as a legally binding contract by itself. To help me better understand the basis of the requirement to complete the academic year, could you kindly share a copy of my signed appointment letter?

I would like to refer to the document where I have expressly agreed to the clause requiring completion of the academic year and any other relevant terms being cited in this matter. I would appreciate it if you could provide the signed document for my reference.

Regards,

Tanisha Das

Hi Tanisha,

As discussed, terminating your services in between a semester is not possible.

Please read the clause in your revised offer letter Point no: 6 that states :

" 6. You will be able to terminate your services with us towards the end of an academic year to avoid minimum disruptions to the academic delivery."

Therefore, you are expected to plan your exit in September.

Thanks.

Hello Nazma,

Thank you for your response.

However, my full-time conversion was subsequently retracted on 31 May 2026 on the grounds that the required original documents had not been submitted. I am attaching a screenshot of the communication received regarding the same for your reference.

As per that communication, the full-time conversion was withdrawn, and therefore my employment status remained under probation. Accordingly, I understand that the applicable notice period is 15 days as per the terms governing employees on probation.

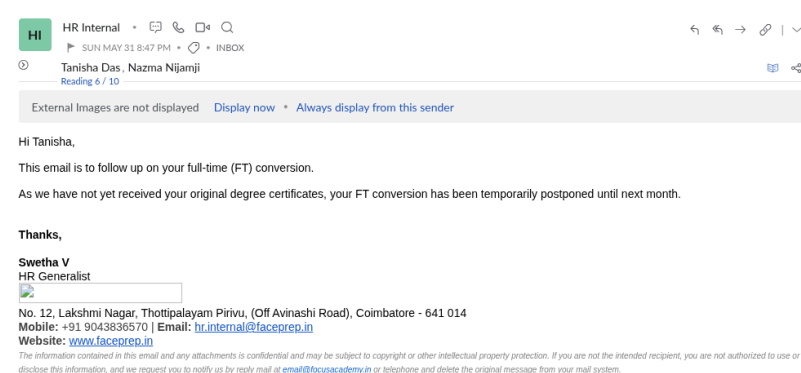

Based on this, I have submitted my resignation and will be serving the required 15-day notice period. My last working day will be 30 June 2026.

Please let me know if any additional information or documentation is required from my end.

Regards,

Tanisha Das

Hi Tanisha,

As per our records, you were converted to a full-time employee effective May 1, 2026, and an email was previously sent to you regarding this change.

According to the terms of your full-time contract, you are required to complete the current academic year. Consequently, we cannot accommodate any resignations or exits at this time.

Thanks.

Hello,

I am writing to tender my resignation from my position as Data Science Mentor.

Under my employment contract and the recent extension of my probation period, I understand that I am required to serve a 15-day notice period. I will fulfill this obligation, and my last working day will be 30-06-2026. During the notice period, I will ensure a smooth handover of my responsibilities and complete any pending tasks to the best of my ability. I will also submit any documents, information, and other requirements necessary to facilitate the separation process.

I would like to thank the organization for the opportunity and experience gained during my tenure. I appreciate the support and learning opportunities provided to me during my time here and wish the company continued success in the future.

Sincerely,
Tanisha Das
